Subject: Council Liaison Recommendation for 2019 Appointment to the Human Services Commission

In addition to the slate of reappointments for 2019, the following recommendation for appointment to the Human Services Commission is being submitted by Deputy Mayor Robinson for your consideration and approval at tonight's meeting.

Three members of this Commission have terms expiring this year. Of the three, two Commissioners are eligible for reappointment to a second term and one has termed out. Staff recently conducted a recruitment to fill a vacancy on the Human Services Commission. Out of this recruitment, two very successful candidates emerged. One of these candidates was appointed to the Commission in February of this year. Deputy Mayor Robinson, Council Liaison to the Commission, has chosen to fill one of the two upcoming vacancies with the other candidate. Please note that this appointment will not be effective until June 1.
