SUBJECT: Ethics Code Training

The Bellevue City Code (BCC) 3.92.060 provides for the position of an ethics officer who is responsible to provide certain services, including reviewing the training materials related to the code of ethics. The City's ethics officer, Hillary Evans, Kenyon Disend, has completed this review.

This evening, Ms. Evans will present an ethics training and will be available to address any questions. Council last received an ethics training on June 12, 2017. The presentation is for information only and no action is being sought from Council.
