

HUMAN SERVICES COMMISSION BYLAWS

These Bylaws constitute the official rules of procedure for the Human Services Commission. Where rules of procedure are not addressed in these Bylaws, the Human Services Commission shall be governed by the City Council's adopted Rules (Resolution No. 10544) and/or by Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

ARTICLE I - Scope of Authority/Responsibility

The members of the Human Services Commission accept the responsibility of the office and declare their intention to execute the duties defined under the State law and Bellevue City Code to the best of their ability and to respect and observe the requirements established by the Bellevue City Council.

The authority of the Human Services Commission is limited to those specific functions set forth in the Bellevue City Code, Chapter 3.61. The purpose of the Commission is advisory to the City Council.

The Commission shall have no authority or responsibility relating to the following activities:

- A. The Commission or its individual members shall not speak for or advocate on behalf of the City or Commission, or act in a manner that may be construed as representing the City, unless specifically authorized to do so by the City Council.
- B. The Commission or its individual members have no supervisory authority and shall not direct administrative operations, maintenance, or hiring of consultants and other independent contractors.
- C. The Commission shall not participate in regional issues not specifically assigned to the Commission by the City Council.

A member of the Commission is not authorized to speak for the Commission unless the Commission has expressly authorized the member's communication.

An individual member is free to voice a position, oral or written, on any issue after making it clear that the member is not speaking as a representative of the City or as a member of the Commission.

ARTICLE II - Membership and Organization of the Commission

- A. Membership.
 1. Each person at time of nomination and continuing uninterrupted thereafter while serving on the Commission shall be a resident of the City of Bellevue.
 2. Each person to be appointed shall be nominated by the Council Liaison for a specific, numbered position on the Commission.
 3. Appointees shall commence service after confirmation by the City Council and the effective date of the previous member's resignation or expiration of the existing term for the position, as applicable.

4. Each confirmation motion by the Council shall include the ending date and term for the position to which the member is appointed and that information shall be entered into the Council meeting minutes and maintained in the Commission's records by the Deputy City Clerk.
5. The term for all positions on the Commission shall be four years. Each position shall expire on May 31st of the last year of the term. The expiration date of the terms of the positions on the commission shall be staggered so that no more than four positions expire in the same year.
6. No person shall serve on any city council advisory board or commission for more than two consecutive terms, provided a person appointed to fill an unexpired term of less than two years is eligible to serve two additional successive four-year terms, and provided further, a person who is ineligible to serve for having served two consecutive terms may again serve after two years have elapsed from the end of the second such term. This "limitation to two consecutive terms" means service on the same board or commission for two successive terms, or service on one board or commission for one term followed by service on another board or commission for another term; and whereby a term is defined as service of two years or longer.

- B. Election of Officers. The Human Services Commission shall elect a Chair and Vice-Chair, and any other officers the Commission deems necessary, for a term of one year at their first regular meeting in June of each year, or as soon thereafter as feasible based on seating of newly-appointed members.

In the event of the resignation of the Chair or Vice-Chair, the Commission shall expeditiously elect a new officer to fill the vacancy.

In the absence of the Chair and Vice-Chair, a Chair pro tem shall be elected informally by the members present to conduct the meeting.

- C. Committees. The Chair, with the concurrence of the Commission, may appoint standing committees or special committees of the Commission and assign one or more members to such committees.
- D. Quorum. At all meetings of the Commission, quorum shall consist of a majority of the members. Quorum must be maintained throughout the entirety of the meeting.
- E. Ex officio members. The Council may approve the appointment of an ex officio member to the Commission. Ex officio members are authorized to sit at the table and participate in discussions, but are non-voting members.
- F. Resignation. A member may resign by giving written notice to the City Clerk and the Chair of the Commission.
- G. Removal from office. Members of the Commission may be removed at any time by the Mayor, upon approval of a majority of the Council, for neglect of duty, conflict of interest, unexcused absence from three consecutive regular meetings of the Commission, or for any reason deemed sufficient by the majority of the Council. The decision of the Council shall be final and there shall be no appeal.
- H. Vacancies. Vacancies shall be reported immediately to the City Clerk.

Vacancies occurring for reasons other than the expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by appointment by the Mayor upon approval of a majority of the Council.

- I. Staffing. The Parks and Community Services Director shall assign staff support to the Commission.

ARTICLE III - Duties of Officers

- A. Presiding Officer. The Chair shall be the presiding officer of the Commission. In the temporary absence of the Chair, the Vice-Chair shall perform the duties and responsibilities of the Chair. The Presiding Officer is required to attend meetings in person. If the Presiding Officer is authorized to participate in a meeting remotely under Article V.G of these Bylaws, the Presiding Officer must pass the Presiding Officer role for that meeting to a commission member who will attend that meeting in person.

- A. Regular meetings. The regular meetings of the Human Services Commission shall generally be held at 6:00 pm on the first and third Monday of each month; unless there is critical or time-sensitive work, the Commission may recess for either the month of August or December.

Regular or continued meetings that fall on a holiday shall be rescheduled by the Commission.

- B. Special meetings. Special meetings may be held by the Commission subject to notice requirements prescribed in state law. The notice for special meetings shall state the subjects to be considered, and no subjects other than those specified in the notice shall be considered.

Electronic mail shall be considered written notice to members for purposes of this rule.

All meetings of the Commission shall be open to the public; provided, the Commission may hold Executive Sessions as permitted by law (RCWs 42.30.110).

Minutes will be prepared for all regular and special meetings and presented as soon as practicable for Commission review and approval. The notice will specify the time and place of the special meeting and the business to be transacted.
- F. Attendance. Attendance at regular and special meetings is expected of all Commission members.

Unexcused absences from three consecutive regular meetings shall be reported to the City Council for appropriate action as prescribed by Bellevue City Code, Section 3.61.010.

- G. Remote participation. Commission members are encouraged to attend meetings in person when practicable. A member may participate remotely using approved teleconferencing equipment. Any member who wishes to participate in a meeting remotely must notify the presiding officer and the staff liaison of their intent no later than 12:00 p.m. the day prior to the meeting. If more than three members provide timely notice of their intent to participate remotely, the staff liaison will determine who may participate remotely and who may not, and will notify the members.

No more than three Commission members may participate remotely during any one Commission meeting. Such remote participation will be considered attendance at the meeting and shall be counted toward determination of a quorum.

- H. Recess. The Commission may, by a majority vote or consensus, recess for a short break. The proposal to recess may set a time limit or run until the Chair calls the meeting back to order.

- I. Continuation. The continuation of a meeting shall be to a definite time and place and approved by majority vote.

- G. The order of business does not apply to Special Meetings.

ARTICLE VII - Public Comment

- A. Timing of Communications. The Commission shall not take public comment at regular meetings except for that given at a public hearing or at Oral and Written Communications. Written comments may be submitted to the Commission staff in advance of the meeting.
- B. Addressing the Chair. Speakers shall address all statements to the Chair. Commission members may direct questions to speakers only with the Chair's permission.
- C. Public hearings. The purpose of a public hearing is to gather information and opinions on a specific subject the Commission is studying. The following rules shall be observed during any public hearing:

 - 5. No specific time limitations are placed on the length of public hearings.
 - 6. The Commission may continue a hearing to a future date or close a hearing after everyone wishing to speak has spoken.
 - 7. All written material provided before or during the hearing will be included in the hearing record.

 - 1. The time allowed for Oral Communications shall not exceed 30 minutes.

 - 3. Speakers will be allowed to speak for three minutes. Additional time will not be allowed unless the Chair or a majority of the Commission determines to allow additional time.

4. Suspension of these rules will require a majority vote of the Commission members present and must be consistent with the requirements of the Open Public Meeting Act, Chapter 42.30 RCW.

E. Decorum.

1. Public comment shall be limited to matters relating to city of Bellevue government and to subject matters encompassed within the power and duties of the commission.
2. Public comment may not be used for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of any person to any office or for the promotion or opposition to any ballot proposition.
3. Persons participating in commission meetings must not engage in speech or conduct that disrupts, disturbs, or otherwise impedes the orderly conduct of any meeting. Disruptions may include and are not limited to:
 - a. Addressing the commission while the commission is in session without the permission of the presiding officer;
 - b. Failure of a speaker to comply with the allotted time established for that speaker's public comments or to speak on topic during a comment period that is limited to a topic;
 - c. Failure of a speaker to comply with the rules in this code or in the commission bylaws concerning public comment;
 - d. Using an allotted comment period for purposeful delay, including remaining silent or engaging in other activity without conveying a discernible message;
 - e. Whistling, hand clapping, stomping of feet, shouting or other outbursts from members of the public who have not been recognized by the presiding officer for public comment or testimony;
 - f. Speech or other expression by an individual who has not been recognized by the presiding officer for public comment who is expressing themselves in a volume louder than a low, conversational level appropriate for communication between persons seated next to each other in the commission meeting room, or whose speech or other expressions are audible by others;
 - g. Standing in a location that obstructs the view of meeting attendees, unless speaking as recognized by the presiding officer;
 - h. Approaching commission members or city employees who are staffing the meeting while the commission meeting is in progress, unless permitted to do so by the presiding officer; and
 - i. Affixing a banner or sign to walls or structures in the commission meeting room or holding or placing a sign in a way that endangers others or obstructs the free flow of pedestrians or the view of others attending a commission meeting.

4. Persons participating in commission meetings must also not engage in the following conduct, which may subject them to criminal sanctions in addition to the enforcement of these requirements:
 - a. True threats of violence, that purposefully or recklessly place a person in fear of bodily harm, death, or other violence;
 - b. Use of obscene language or gestures; or
 - c. Assault or attempted assault.
5. Ejection From Meeting. Where speech or conduct results in actual disruption of the commission meeting, or is in violation of subsection (E)(4) of this section, the presiding officer may issue a verbal warning to the person and/or may (a) terminate the person's individual comment period and direct their microphone be turned off; (b) direct security personnel to assist the person to the person's seat; or (c) order the person to leave the meeting room for the remainder of the meeting and have the person removed from the meeting room by security personnel if the person does not leave.
6. Exclusion from Future Meetings.
 - a. Repeated disruptions, or violations of subsection (E)(4) of this section, may result in the person being excluded from participating in public comment or from attendance at one or more future commission meetings.
 - b. In deciding whether to issue a notice of exclusion and the terms and length of the exclusion, the presiding officer shall consider the seriousness and number of the disruptions or violations, their impact on the orderly conduct of commission meetings, whether the conduct threatens public safety, and the person's record of conduct at meetings. The presiding officer may issue an exclusion from participating in public comment, or from attendance, at future commission meetings for up to 180 calendar days.
 - c. If the presiding officer issues an exclusion to any person for future meetings, the exclusion shall be in writing and shall inform the person of the specific reasons for the exclusion and the specific terms and length of the exclusion. The written notice shall advise that if the person desires to address the commission during the period of exclusion, they may submit written comments which will be received by the staff liaison and provided to each of the commission members.
 - d. The notice shall be filed with the city clerk, who shall mail it to the person's last known address, if any, or to the person's email address if the city clerk has an email address but does not have a mailing address. The city clerk shall also post the notice on the door of Room 1E-113 in City Hall and on the commission's web page and provide a copy of the notice to all commission members and city council members. The notice is effective when posted on the door of Room 1E-113 and shall remain posted during commission meetings for the duration of the exclusion period.

7. The decision of the presiding officer to eject a person from public comment or attendance at a commission meeting may be overruled by a majority vote of those commission members in attendance at the meeting from which the person was ejected. If the presiding officer issues an exclusion from public comment or attendance at future meetings, that decision may be overruled by a majority vote of those commission members in attendance at the next regular commission meeting following the filing and posting of the exclusion notice or by a majority vote of the city council at the next regular council meeting following the filing and posting of the exclusion notice.
 8. Any person excluded from participation in future public comment periods or from attendance at future commission meetings may appeal the exclusion by submitting a written appeal stating the bases for the appeal to the city clerk within six business days after notice of the exclusion is posted on the door of Room 1E-113. The city council shall consider any timely appeal at its next regularly scheduled open public meeting that is at least three (3) business days from the receipt of the appeal. The person's exclusion from public comment periods or from attendance at commission meetings shall remain in effect during the council's consideration of the appeal.
- F. Timekeeping. The City staff assigned to the Commission shall be the timekeeper.

ARTICLE VIII - Motions

- A. No motion should be entertained or debated until seconded and announced by the Chair.
- B. The motion shall be recorded and, if desired by any member, read by the Clerk before it is debated. With the consent of the Commission, a motion may be withdrawn at any time before action is taken on the motion.
- C. Motions shall be entertained in the order of precedence outlined in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

ARTICLE IX - Voting

- A. Action. Action may be taken by a majority of the members present when a quorum exists.
- B. Votes on Questions. Each member present or participating remotely shall vote on all questions put to the Commission except on matters in which they have been disqualified for a conflict of interest or under the Appearance of Fairness doctrine. Such member shall disqualify themselves prior to any discussion of the matter, stating the reason for the disqualification unless there is a legal impediment to disclosure. The disqualified member will then leave the meeting room.

Voting shall be accomplished by voice or through a showing of hands. Secret balloting is prohibited. Proxy votes of members not present are not valid votes. All votes shall be recorded in the Summary Minutes.

- C. Tie Vote. The passage of a motion is defeated by a tie vote, provided that the question may be brought forward again at the request of any member at the same meeting or at the next meeting when any members who were absent or disqualified at the time of the tie vote are present.
- D. Failure to Vote. Any Commission member who fails to vote without a valid disqualification shall be declared to have voted in the affirmative on the question.

- E. Six-month Time Limitation. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, once a matter has been voted on and the time for reconsideration has passed with no action, the matter may not be taken up again for six months unless there is a showing of a substantial change of circumstances.
- F. Decisions. The Commission shall act as a body in making its decisions and in announcing them. The Chair or the Chair's designee shall serve as the spokesperson for the Commission in reporting decisions.

ARTICLE X – Conflict of Interest, Appearance of Fairness, and Legal Assistance

Commission members are held to high ethical standards and shall at all times comply with the provisions of Chapter 3.92 of the Bellevue City Code, as they exist now or as amended in future.

Any member of the Commission who, in their opinion, has an interest in any matter before the Commission that would tend to prejudice their actions shall so publicly indicate and shall step down and refrain from voting and participating in any manner on the matter in question to avoid any possible conflict of interest or violation of the appearance of fairness.

When there is doubt concerning the legality of an issue, the City Attorney (or designee) may be called upon to advise members as to the legality of the proposed action. If necessary, a hearing or deliberation may be continued until legal matters can be clarified. Care must be taken in maintaining records of the proceedings when litigation is a possibility.

ARTICLE XI – Minutes

- A. Minutes are the official record of a meeting. Electronic recordings of meetings (if made) are retained for six years. After that period, the minutes are the only source of information about what took place at a meeting. For this reason, it is important that minutes accurately reflect what occurred.

Minutes should be sufficiently detailed to provide what was done, by whom, and why, in order to provide an accurate summary of the main points of the discussion. Minutes are written to provide a readable, concise record of lengthy meetings, and as such not every speaker's comments on every topic are included.

If a Commission member wishes to ensure that a particular statement is included in the minutes, they should indicate, "For the record, I believe...." to signal the desire to have this comment included.

- B. Draft minutes presented for approval in the meeting packet may be amended if a legally sufficient reason to do so exists.

Once approved, that page of amended minutes will subsequently show the following wording next to the spot of the amendment: "Corrected – see minutes of Human Services Commission."

ARTICLE XII – Compliance with Laws

All Commission members shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances, including but not limited to Chapter 49.60 RCW (Washington's Law Against Discrimination) and 42 U.S.C. 12101 et. seq. (ADA), BCC 3.92 (Code of Ethics), RCW 42.56 (Public Records Act), RCW 42.30 (Open Public Meetings Act), BCC 2.26 (Public Records) and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Public Law 88-352).

ARTICLE XIII - Communications

- A. Communications with Council. The Commission shall provide at least quarterly communications to the Council, either at Reports of Boards and Commissions or in written form. Reports should highlight major activities, future work plans, changes in work plans, and request any policy direction needed from Council. All communications with Council shall comply with BCC 3.61.040.
- B. Communications among Commission members. To avoid possible violations of the Open Public Meetings Act, Commission members shall refrain from back-and-forth exchange of information, viewpoints, positions, or other dialogue via email, telephone, or in person among a quorum of the membership about the business of the Commission outside of a public meeting. Communications among less than a quorum that are then relayed by a participant to other members, who together constitute a quorum, are also prohibited.

ARTICLE XIV -- Records

The term “public records” applies to any paper, correspondence, completed form, bound record book, photograph, film, audio or video recording, map drawing, machine-readable material, video stream, email, text message, or social media that has been created or received by any state or local government agency during the course of public business and legislative records described in RCW 40.14.100. The following requirements apply to the Human Services Commission and its individual members:

- A. Public records are the property of the City and must be managed (preserved, stored, transferred, destroyed, etc.) according to the provisions of Chapter 40.14 RCW.
- B. Tools are in place to manage all emails sent to the Commission’s email account (humanservicescommission@bellevuewa.gov) according to state law.
- C. Commission members are responsible for including Commission staff on all Commission-related communications, including forwarding any emails sent to the member in their individual capacity to the humanservicescommission@bellevuewa.gov address. Any hard copy records shall also be transferred to staff for long-term maintenance.
- D. Members may be required to produce emails or documents that relate to the activities or operations of the Commission in response to a public disclosure request. Members may also be required to produce their personal notes taken at Commission meetings that relate to the activities and deliberations of the Commission. To the extent that those notes contain information that is purely personal or material that is exempt under the Public Disclosure Act, they may not need to be provided to the requestor.
- E. As required by WAC 44-14-04003(3) and the City’s Public Records Act Rules, the City must provide the fullest assistance in response to public disclosure requests. The City’s Public Records Officer and a representative of the City Attorney’s Office will review any documents that may be exempt from disclosure and will provide the necessary explanations of any exemptions to the requestor if access to particular records is denied. Courts may award monetary penalties should the City not respond fully or promptly.

- F. Commission members are advised to establish a separate, clearly-named file within their personal email account and/or on the hard drive of their personal computer to which they file all materials relating to the Commission.

ARTICLE XV - Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses

Members of the Commission shall serve without compensation. Members shall be reimbursed for authorized travel or other expenses incidental to that service, which are authorized by the City Manager or City Council. Members should seek pre-authorization for any proposed expense.

ARTICLE XVI - Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended, revised, or repealed by the entire Commission at any regular meeting or any special meeting, provided that notice of such changes is included on the agenda and the vote to change takes place at the next regular meeting. Amendments will not be valid unless two-thirds of the membership of the Commission vote in favor of amending the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XVII - Validity

If any part or parts of these Bylaws are found to be invalid, that part or parts will not invalidate the remainder of the Bylaws.
