

Environmental Stewardship Initiative

Sustainable Bellevue Plan Update Launch

Thara Johnson | Community Development
Jennifer Ewing | Community Development
Jamie Robinson | Finance & Asset Management
Ana Hagerup | Finance & Asset Management
October 29, 2024

Direction

Consider providing direction to initiate the update to the Sustainable Bellevue Environmental Stewardship Plan for the next five-year period, from 2026-2030.

Agenda

1. Plan Implementation Progress
2. Major Accomplishments
3. Plan Update Scope, Approach, and Timeline

Plan Implementation Progress

Status	# of Actions	Description	% of Total
 Started	19	Work has started / implementation is partially complete	24%
 Ongoing	39	Work has been incorporated into ongoing operations	50%
 Complete	10	Work has been completed	13%
 Not started	10	Work to begin in 2025-2026	13%
 Barrier	0	Need to re-strategize approach. There is a barrier to implementing the action.	0%
Total	78		100%

Progress on Top Priorities

Community Actions

- Tree Code Update
- Residential Electrification: Energy Smart Eastside
- Commercial Energy Efficiency
- Policy updates
- Education and Engagement
- Staffing
- Funding

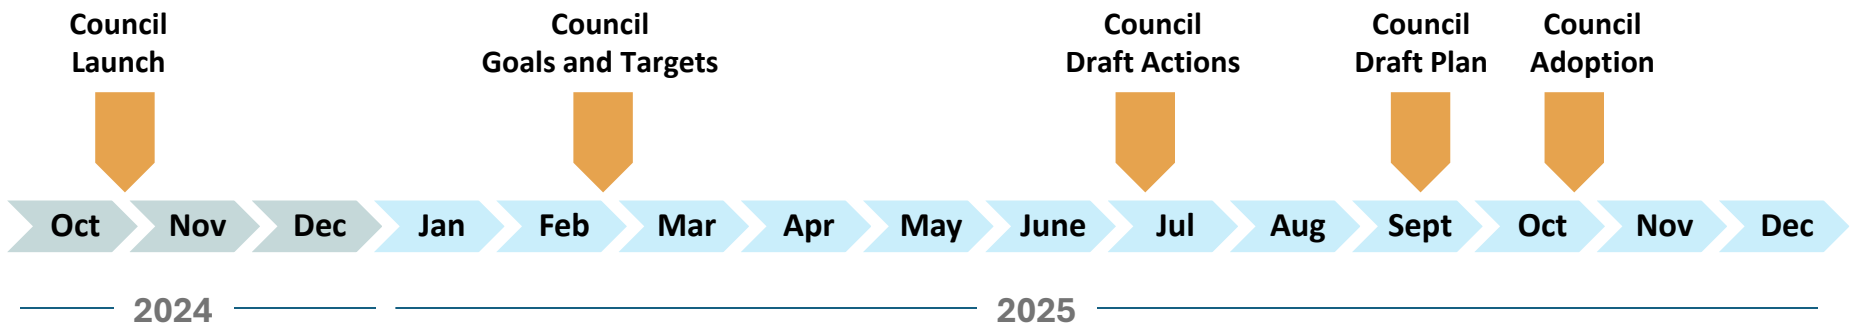

Progress on Top Priorities

Municipal Operations Actions

- Leading by Example:
47% GHG reduction
- Clean Buildings
Standard Compliance
- EV Infrastructure
Retrofits
- Green Power
- Bellevue Service
Center
Decarbonization

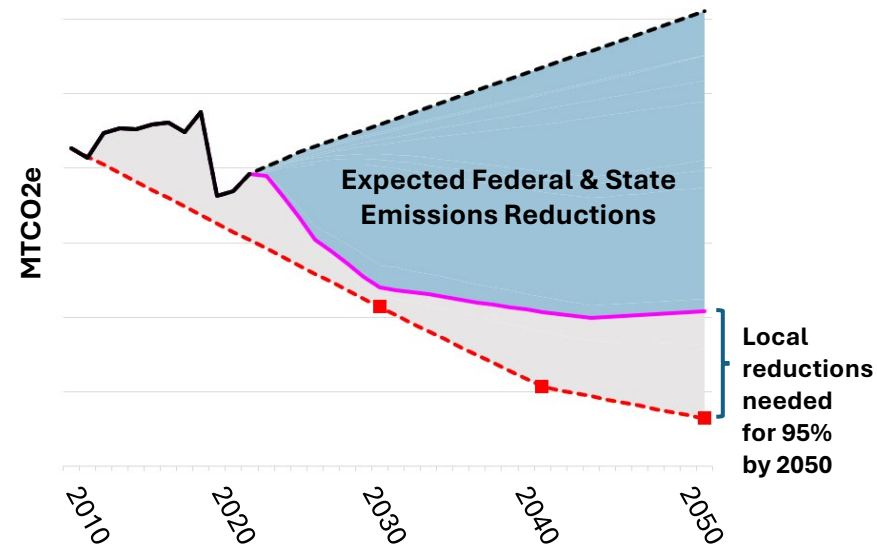

Plan Update Approach and Timeline

Scope Overview

- Implement new Comp Plan Policies
- Update Goals and Targets:
 - Net Zero Emissions by 2050 (CL-13)
- Update GHG Inventory and Wedge Analysis
- Strategies to achieve 2030 goals
- Refresh actions and add new actions
- Climate Resilience and decarbonization

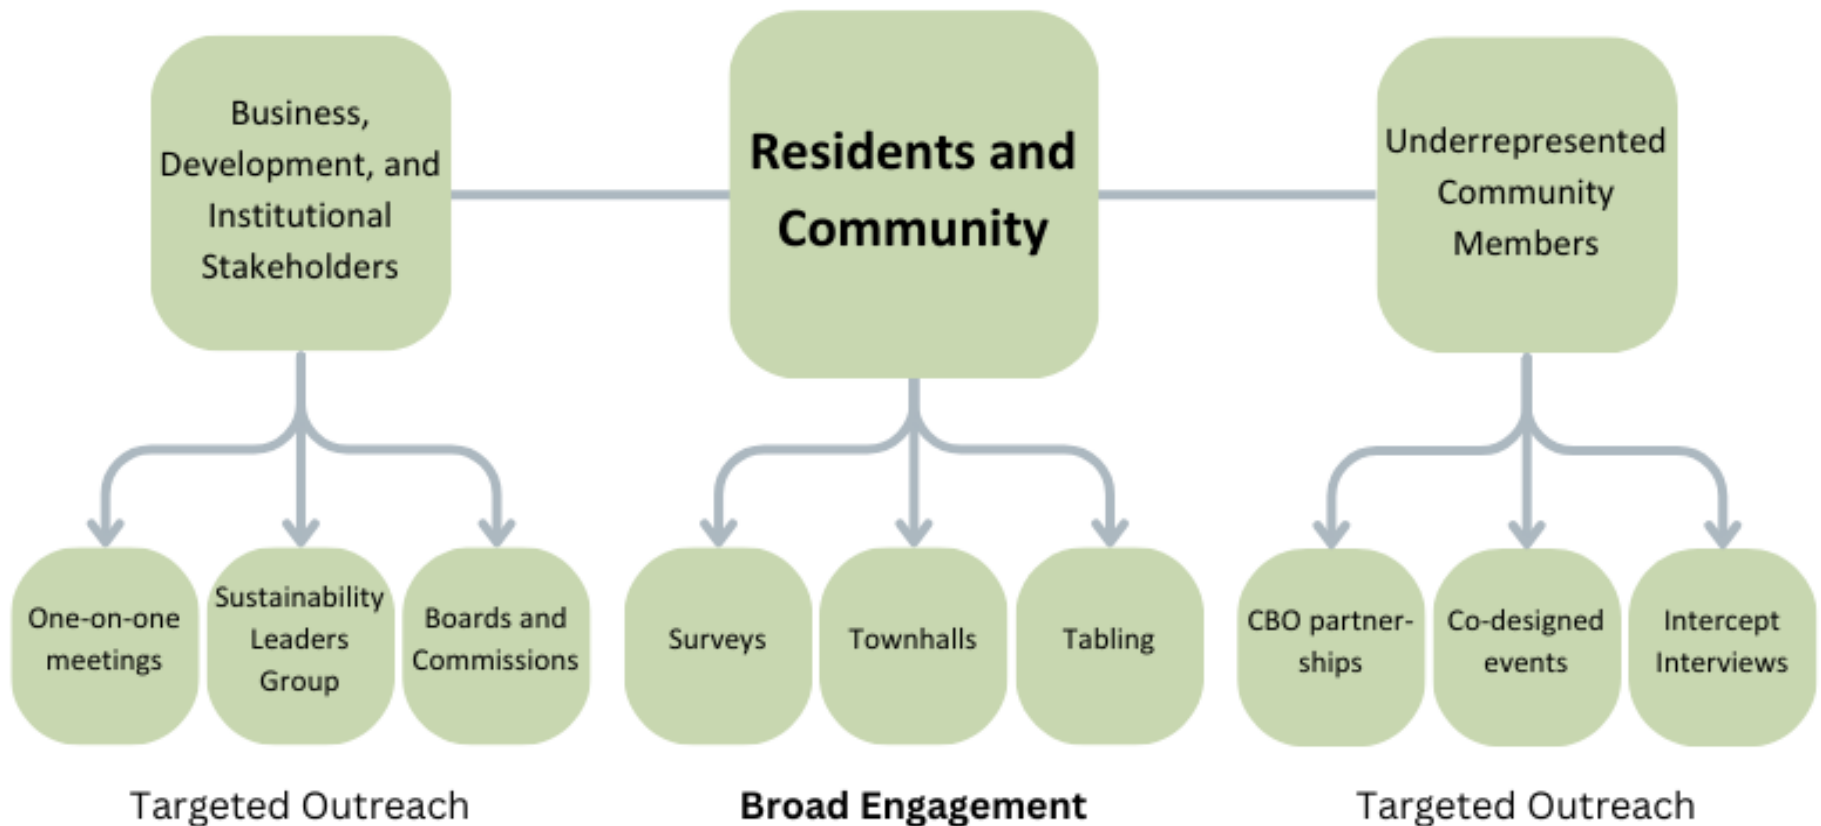

New Topics to Consider

- Fleet Medium and heavy-duty vehicles
- Electric landscaping equipment
- Water Conservation
- Innovative technologies
- Green economy
- Climate and Sustainability in:
 - Budgeting
 - Purchasing
 - Capital projects
- Funding sources

Summary of Outreach Approach

Direction

Consider providing direction to initiate the update to the Sustainable Bellevue Environmental Stewardship Plan for the next five-year period, from 2026-2030.

Thank You

