Background

The evolution of the "city hall in your neighborhood" concept

By CLAUDE IOSSO It's Your City Editor

Mini City Hall, which has delivered an array of services to residents conveniently at Crossroads Shopping Center for decades, is not so mini anymore.

To meet increasing demand which included a celebration of the facility's 30-year anniversary, a ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new space and a resource fair, highlighting the different services available on site.

"Our council vision states that, "Bellevue welcomes the world."" Deputy Mayor Mo Malakoutian
