Attached is a 5-page document entitled "2023 City of Bellevue-Probation – Accounts OVER $1,000 Deemed Uncollectible as of 12/31/2023" This listing contains a total of 80 accounts totaling: $146,604.34.

The document contains five columns:

1. Case number in lieu of Client name
2. Write-off amount
3. Account Type
4. Court close or EHD end date
5. Account Status (referred to collection agency, overdue, closed, unable to locate, etc.)

This list of accounts meets the requirements of Ordinance No. 5838, namely that each account:

1. Does exceed $1000
2. Is over one year old since closure (*see #3 above)
3. Has exhausted all cost-effective means of collection.

Each account has been through our standard collection process, which includes these steps:

1. Obtain documentation form King County District Court order Probation &/or EHD and imposing fees.
2. Have client sign a Promissory Note, agreeing to pay fees as they become due.
3. Generate monthly billing and send monthly statements of fees owing.
4. When closed, if delinquent, send a warning letter, requesting payment within 30 days.
5. Submit delinquent accounts with good addresses, and some but unsatisfactory response or payment to COB Legal Division, who sends a final Demand letter for payment of balance.
6. Submit accounts that do not respond to correspondences above, or whose correspondences are returned because of bad addresses (and no new address is found), to our collection agency, PMT Solutions LLC.

Re: Case No. [REDACTED]
Delinquent Balance

Dear [REDACTED]:

I have received a request to commence legal proceedings to collect $100.00 in delinquent payments on your court-ordered probation fees with the City of Bellevue. I am enclosing a copy of the documentation for your review.

The City demands prompt payment of the delinquent amount. If your check/money order, payable to the City of Bellevue, is not received by the Probation Office within the next thirty (30) days, the City will have no choice but to commence legal proceedings, which may include referral of this matter to a collection agency to collect the amount due.

To avoid legal action, please send your payment immediately to:

City of Bellevue Probation Department
P.O. Box 90012
Bellevue, WA 98009-9012

Please be advised that if this matter must be resolved in court, the City will seek prejudgment interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees. To avoid further expense on your part, you are urged to pay the amount due within thirty (30) days. If you have any questions concerning this matter, contact the Probation Department at (425) 452-6958. We anticipate your prompt payment.

Very truly yours,
