SUBJECT: Accredited Services of the City of Bellevue

During the Council meeting of June 3, 2025, under the "Reports of the City Manager," staff will share about the public services that are accredited in the city government of Bellevue. Among our core values are a commitment to excellent public service and upholding the public trust, and accreditation pushes the implementation of services toward innovation, high quality, and high value for the public's money through third-party, peer-reviewed scrutiny and validation.
