

The Council's Pledge

Police Use of Force Policy

Nathan D. McCommon, Deputy City Manager

June 21, 2021

Pledge Text, June 11, 2020

- I. Review police use of force policies. ✓ Done
- II. Engage the community by including a diverse range of input, experiences and stories in the review. ✓ Done
- III. Report the findings of the review to the community and seek feedback. ✓ Done
- IV. Reform police use of force policies. ✓ Working

The Next Twelve Months

- Take every recommendation seriously and advance strategies of implementation
- Comply with changes in state law
Effective July 24, 2021
- Return to Council with quarterly progress reports
- Continue to engage the public

Already Completed

7 of 47 recommendations are already behind us
40 are in front of us

- #3 BPD should finalize its de-escalation policy.
- #6 BPD should devise protocols that encourage supervisors to ID and commend officers successfully using de-escalation strategies.
- #10 BPD should consider revising or eliminating its duty of loyalty policy.

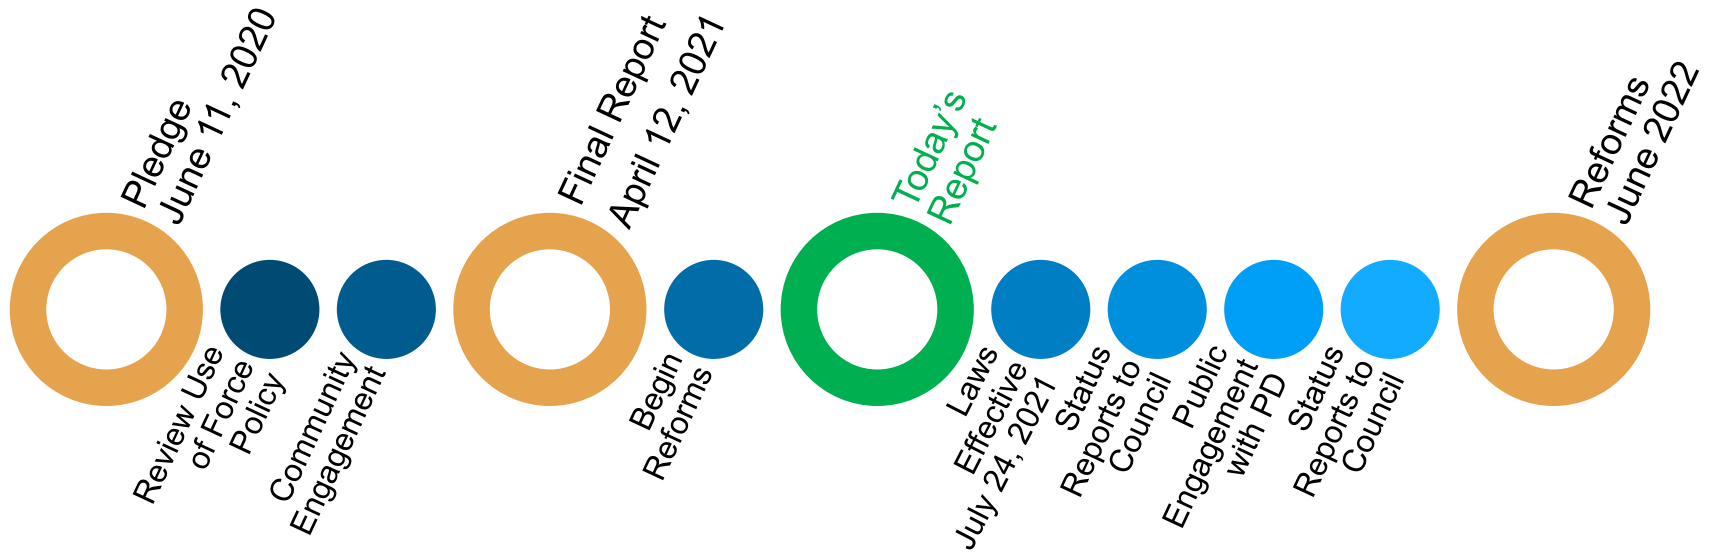

Already Completed

- #14 BPD should include the dates policies are revised or adopted with its online policy manual.
- #21 BPD should place its K9 policy online.
- #41 BPD should post its annual use of force report online.
- #42 BPD should post its Professional Standards Annual Report on its website.

Timeline

Information Only

Police administration plans to report quarterly to the Council on responding to the OIR recommendations.

Police administration will continue public engagement.

