

City of Bellevue | Commendation

Whereas: Toni Call has provided vital service to the City of Bellevue for 11 years, including the past seven leading the management of the city's finances; and

Whereas: Toni was raised in Bellevue and has lived here for many years; and

Whereas: After earning a bachelor's degree in accounting from Central Washington University, Toni joined King County as a policy analyst in 2000. Comfortable with both numbers and people, Toni rose through the ranks at the county to become deputy director of management and budget; and

Whereas: In 2011, Toni joined the City of Bellevue as assistant finance director. In that capacity, she helped guide the development of the 2013-14 and 2015-16 budgets, ensuring they supported city objectives and revenue growth in the years following the Great Recession; and

Whereas: Toni was appointed director of Finance in 2016, helping shepherd through three more balanced biennial budgets. When Finance was joined with the Civic Services Department in 2019, Toni took over the newly formed Finance & Asset Management Department; and

Whereas: In addition to her official duties as director of Finance & Asset Management, Toni has been a strong mentor and advocate for staff across the city, and, with her keen awareness of the big picture, she has been influential on the city's Leadership Team.

Now, therefore, I, Mayor Lynne Robinson, on behalf of the Bellevue City Council, do, this 28th day of November, 2022, hereby commend:

Toni Call

for her commitment to public service and consistently wise counsel regarding the development of the city's budget for more than 10 years.

Lynne Robinson, Mayor
City of Bellevue
