SUBJECT: February Storm Response Report

---

Action Required at this Time

None. This is an informational briefing.

Fiscal Impact

None.

Background

The City of Bellevue experienced a series of snow storms in the first two weeks of February. These storms had an impact on utility service delivery.

On March 7, Robin Murbach, Area Director - Northwest Operations, and Russell Joe, Municipal Relationship Manager, from Republic Services, the city's solid waste collection vendor, will provide a report on how the inclement weather impacted solid waste collection services in Bellevue and Republic Services' response to these storms.

Following Republic Services' report, Joe Harbour Assistant Director of the Operations and Maintenance Division, will brief the Commission on how the storms impacted water, wastewater, and storm and surface water operations, and the Utilities Department's involvement in the City's response to the storm events.
