eCityGov Alliance Update

Nathan McCommon
Deputy City Manager
eGovAlliance Board Member

Sabra Schneider
Chief Information Officer

Tyler Running Deer
Executive Director, eCityGov Alliance

April 8, 2019   1

Alliance History and Background

18 years of regional technology solutions, now serving more than 20 jurisdictions

Government nonprofit, focused on effective regional technology solutions

Bellevue now one of six founding partners on the board

Offers three web-based applications

Alliance Governance

Executive Board

Partner cities are Bellevue, Kirkland, Issaquah, Sammamish, Kenmore and Snoqualmie

Executive Director

The Executive Director manages operations, marketing, regional relationships and recommends strategic direction to the board

Subscribers

Subscriber jurisdictions pay fees to access the software

Current Alliance Products

My Building Permit

- Standard application used across 18 jurisdictions
- Acts as virtual permit counter, providing online, consistent experience
- Promotes alignment of business practices

- Endorsed by the Master Builders Association
- Jurisdictions include King County and Snohomish County

Gov Jobs Today

- End to end recruitment
- Promotes cross marketing of jobs
- Serves 12 jurisdictions

NW Properties

- Search for available commercial property
- Supports economic development
- Serves 14 jurisdictions

MBP Software Enhancements

- Improved dashboard

- Updated status site

- Simplified multi-site process for builders

New Subscribers

- King County, fully deployed

- City of Seatac

- City of Edmonds

- Town of Woodway

Additional Alliance Accomplishments

Enhanced Executive Board partnership

New Executive Director,
Tyler Running Deer

Looking forward

- Continued growth of subscriber base

- Executive Board long-term strategic planning

- Ongoing MBP enhancements