

Meydenbauer Bay Park Construction Update

Presenter:
Patrick Foran, Director
Parks & Community Services

City Council Meeting
June 18, 2018

Meydenbauer Bay Park Master Plan

Adopted Dec. 2010

Downtown Park

NE 1st Street

Main Street

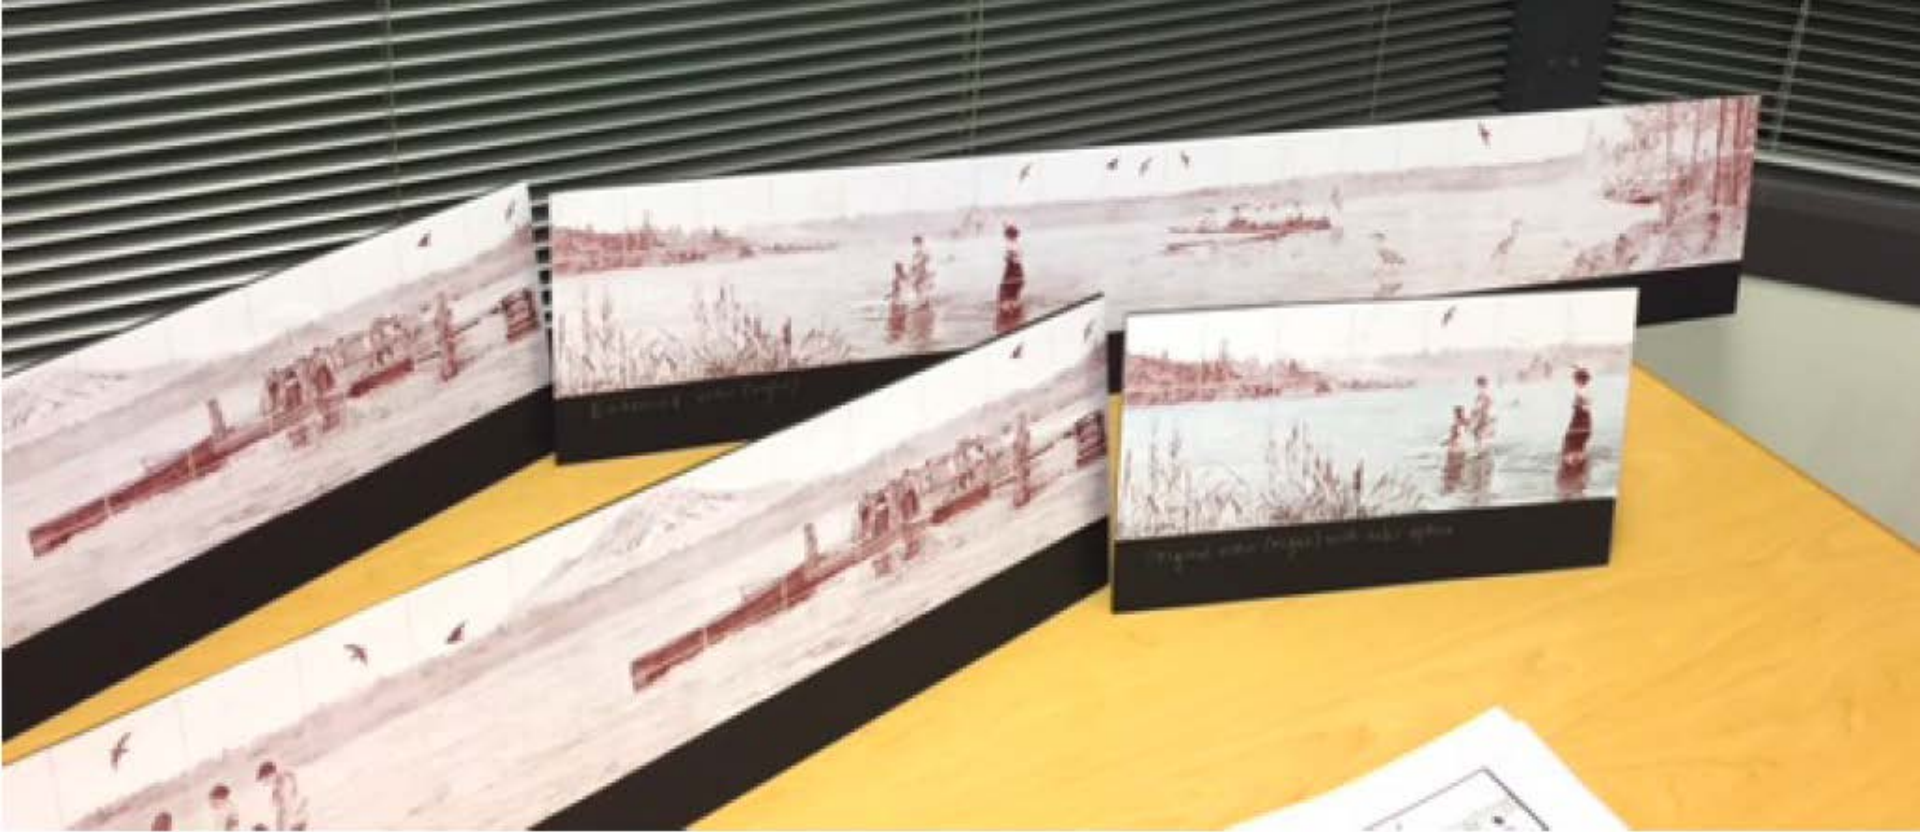

Before

Meydenbauer Bay Park Phase 1 design

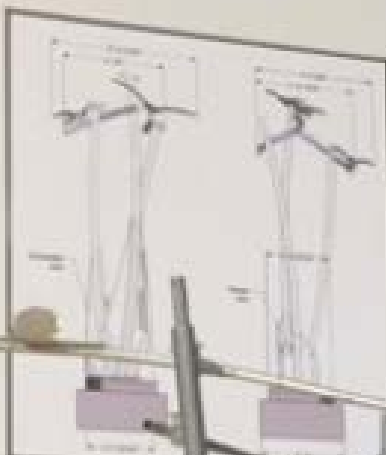

British-inspired paddles

Promenade "Floating Worlds—Oars"

© MARGARET STONE, 2007

Stainless steel, concrete, wood, stone, brass, wire, etched text

water middle
 Oars in water's spirit we move with
 I am old as they and land, and though
 Land middle
 I can hold and ground get water different nurturing get life elements. There and

Site Location in Promenade

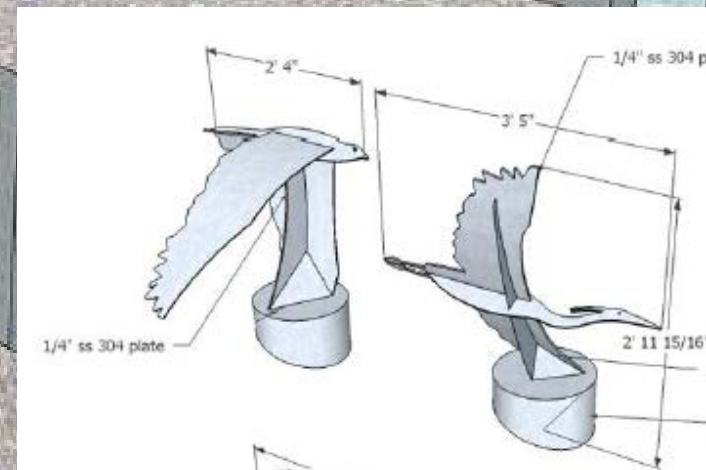

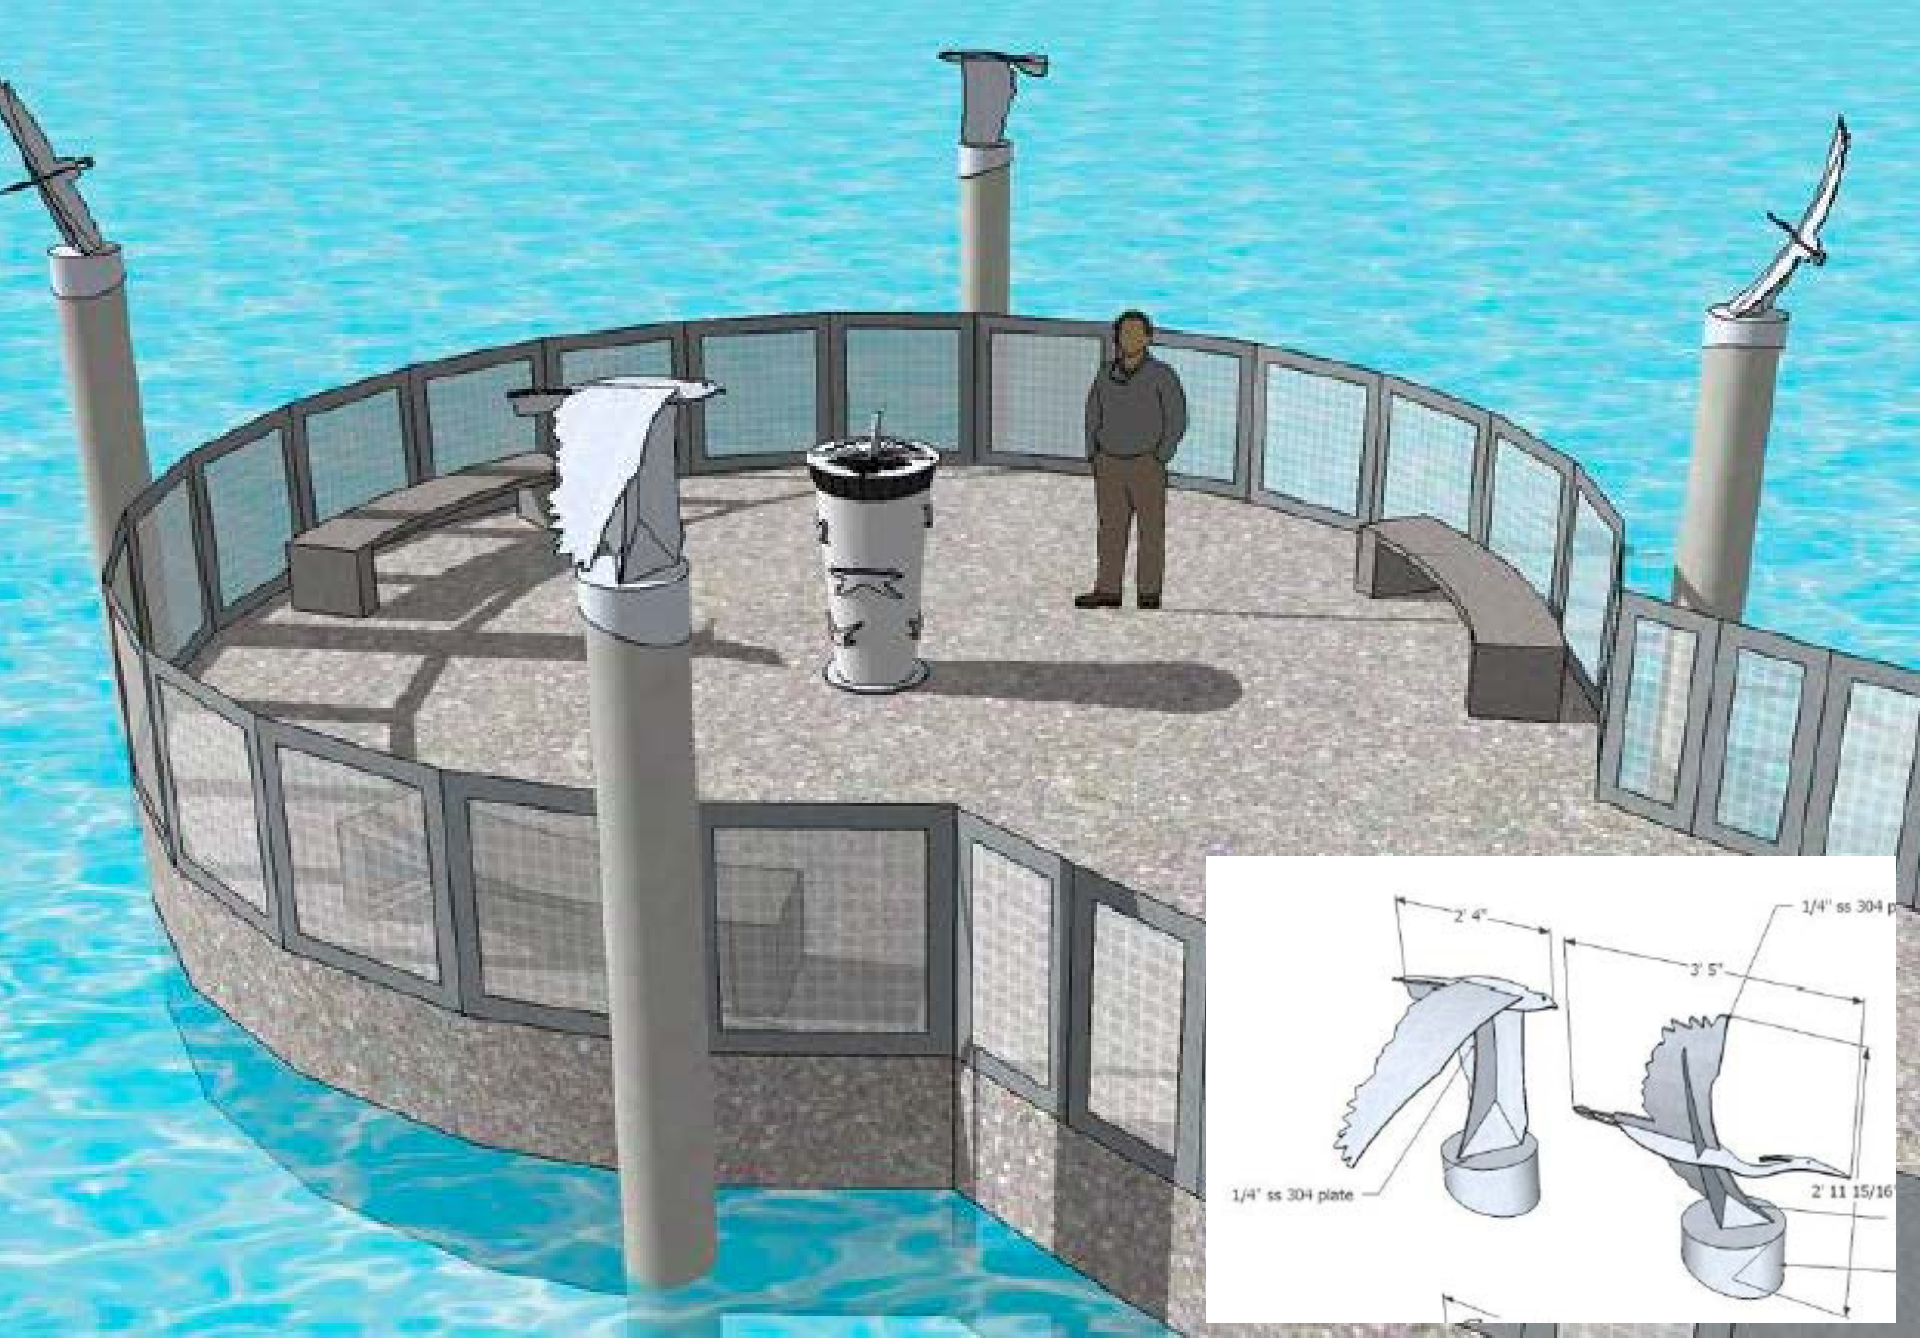

Edge of beach, promenade parallel

Water middle

Labels and descriptive text at the bottom of the display.

Labels and descriptive text at the bottom of the display.

Construction started May 2017
Projected completion December 2018

Beach House Roof Overlook

Pedestrian Pier

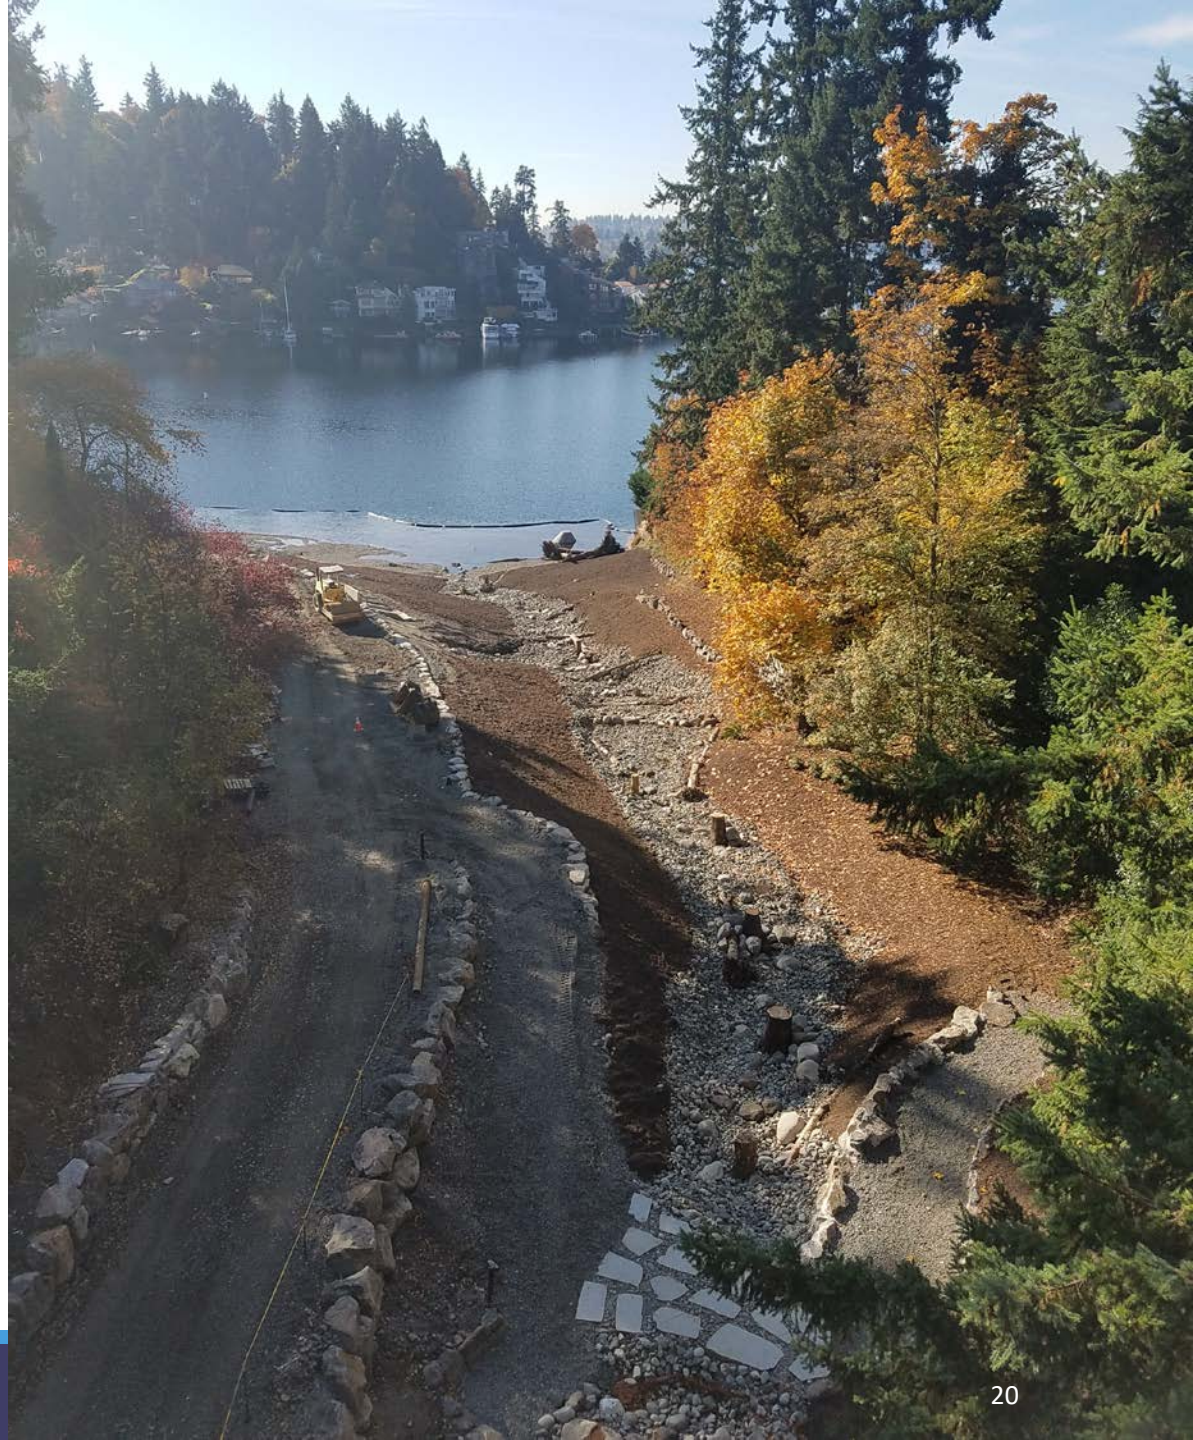

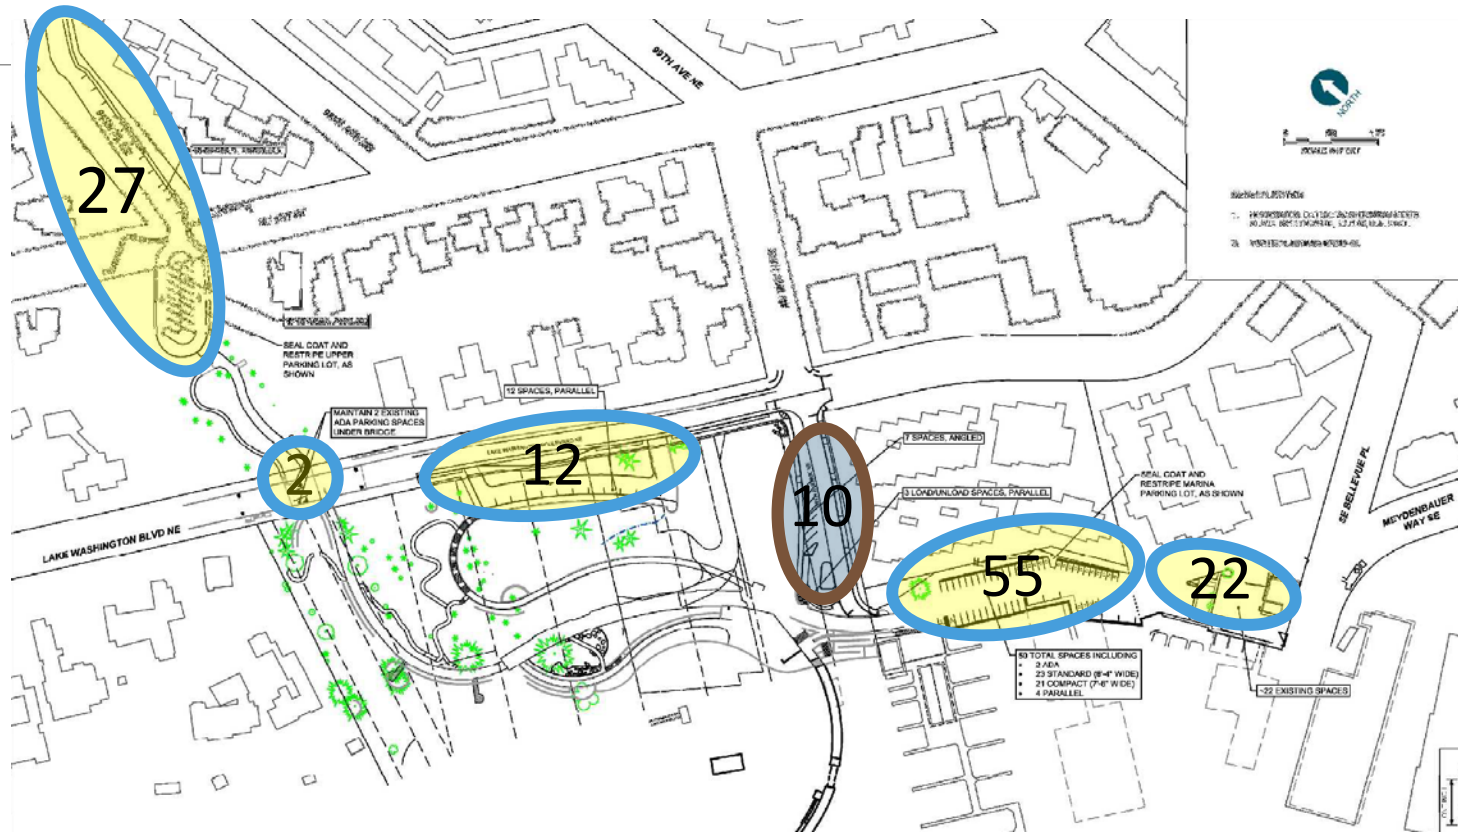

Pedestrian Promenade and Overlook

Ravine (Meydenbauer Beach Park Reconstruction)

Off-street parking for 118

View from pedestrian pier looking toward shore

Today

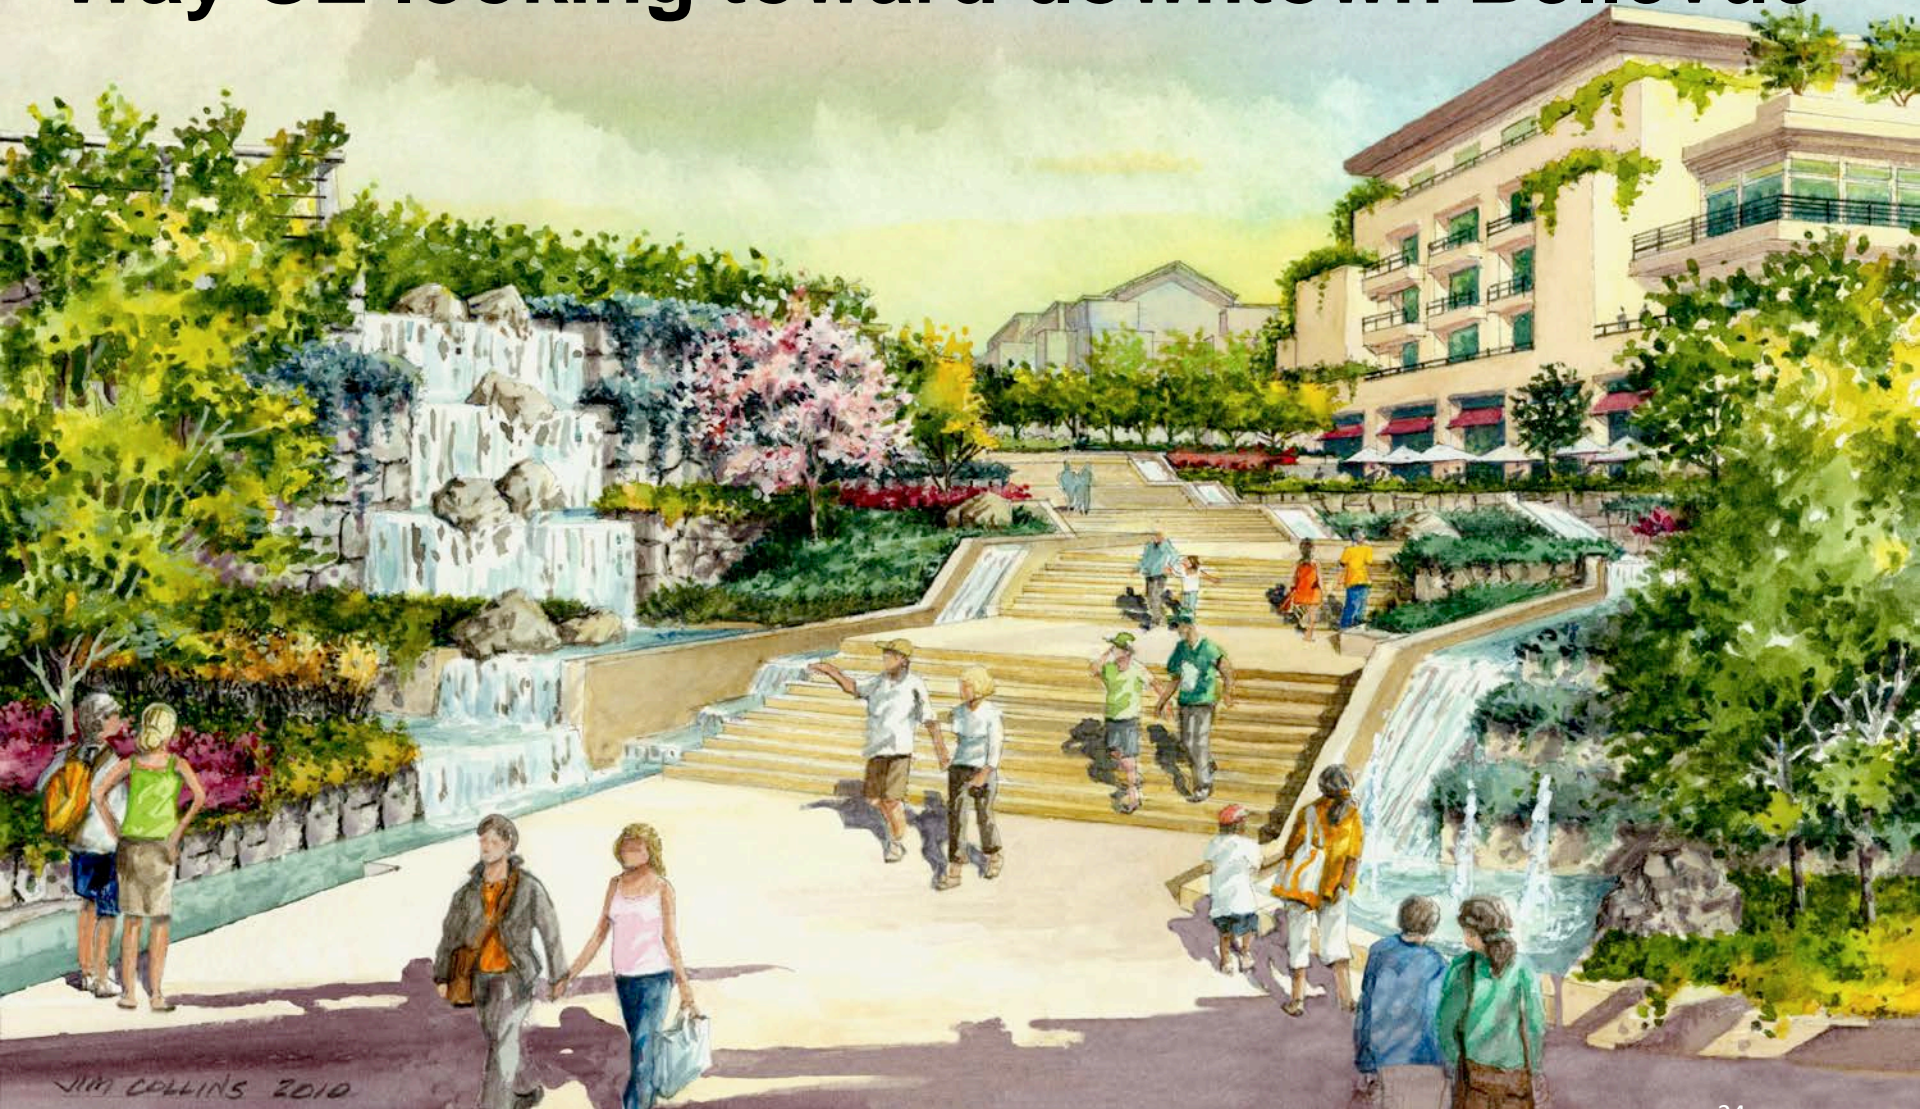

What's next?

Planned

View from 100th Ave SE & Meydenbauer Way SE looking toward downtown Bellevue

JIM COLLINS 2010

View from shoreline promenade looking west toward Whaling Building

