

City of Bellevue

Fire Prevention Activity

Fire Chief Jerome Hagen | Fire
Fire Marshal Ken Carlson | Fire
January 13, 2020

Direction Needed from Council

Information Only

AGENDA

Overview of Inspection Program

Prevention Training for Firefighters

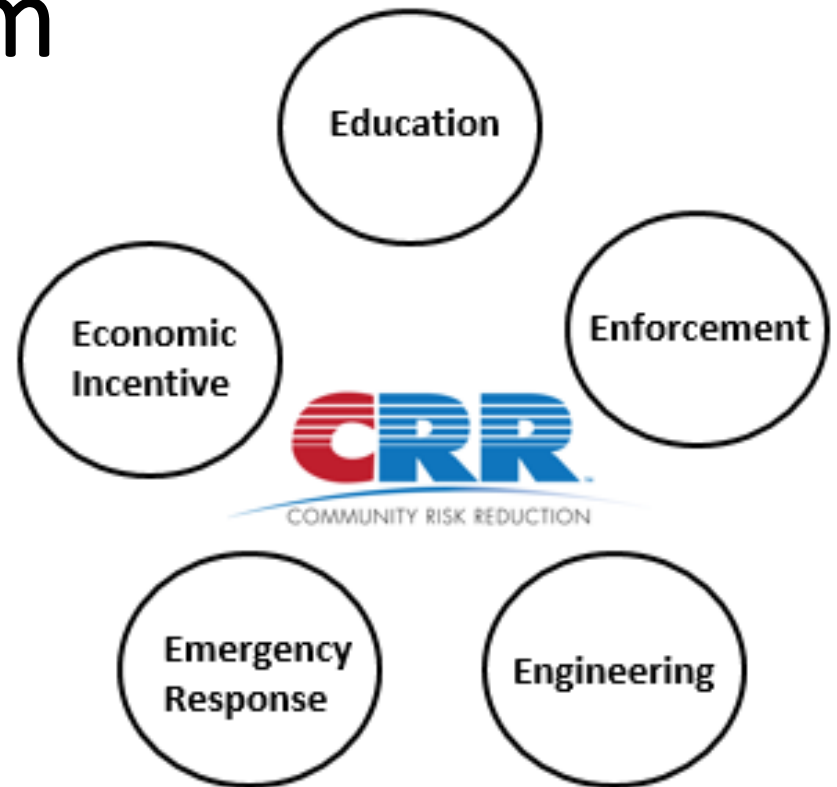

Public Outreach

Q1, Q2 & Q3 Changes

Overview of Inspection Program

- What we do?
- How we do it?
- Why we do it?

Who Performs Inspections?

2018 Resources

Assistant Fire Marshal –
Inspections & Investigations

Firefighters
Up to 3 story buildings

Fire Prevention Officers

Taller & more complex
structures

2019 - Current Resources

Assistant Fire Marshal –
Inspections & Investigations

Firefighters
Up to 3 story buildings

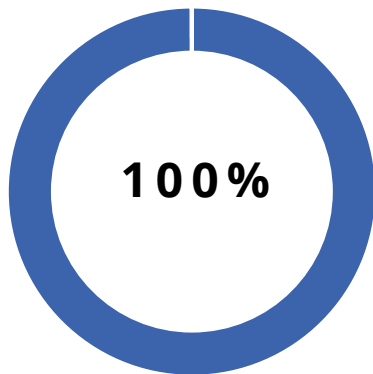

Fire Prevention Officers

Taller & more complex
structures

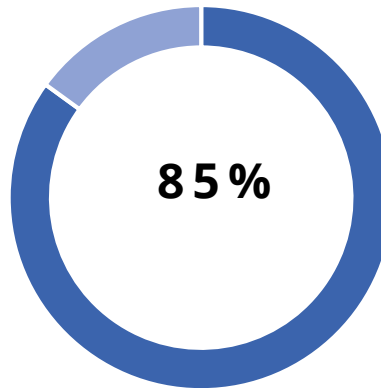

Inspections Completed

Assigned Annual & Semi-annual Fire Maintenance Inspections

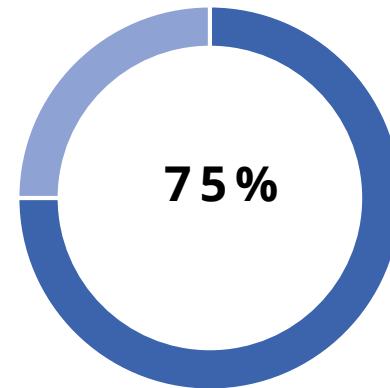

2019

2018

2017

Code Violation Examples

Special Knowledge not allowed

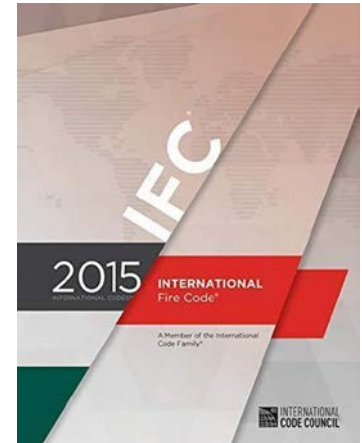

Combustible decorations

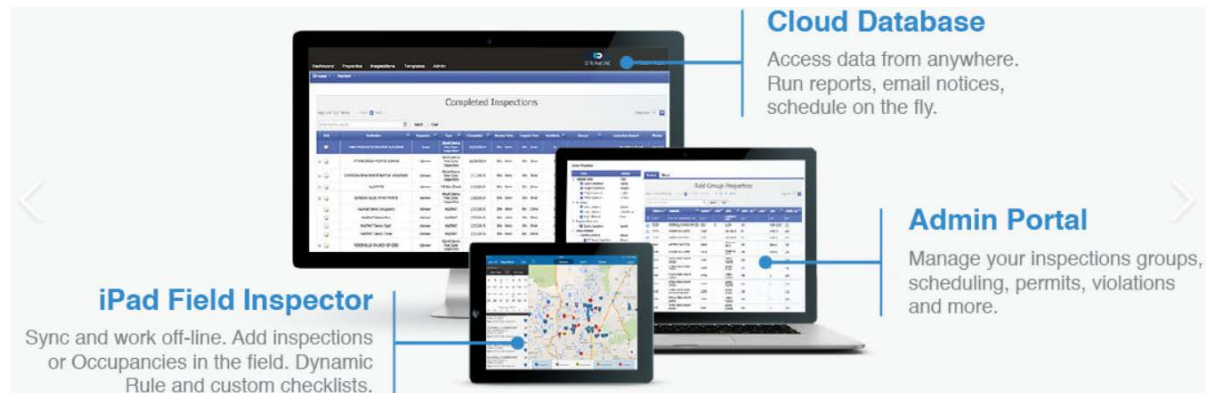

Prevention Training for Firefighters

- High Quality Inspections
- Consistent Application of Code
- Favorable for WSRB Rating

Inspection Software

- Electronic solution – moving from paper to digital
- Benefits Include: Information Available from Field; Less Re-inspections Needed;
- Instant results to customer, Instantly shareable

Public Outreach

- Outreach Activity
- Community Feedback
- Revised Ordinance Adopted

Ordinance 6490

Description

Repeals and replaces §§ 23.11.113.6.8, 23.11.113.6.9, 23.11.113.6.10, 23.11.113.6.11, 23.11.113.6.12 and 23.11.113.6.13, fire inspection fees

Disposition

Pending codification

Adoption Date

12/2/2019

Files Available

- Original Enactment

Affecting

- 23.11.113.6.8, Inspection fee (Replaced by § 1)

2020 Fire Inspection Fee Program

Fire Sprinklers

- Six Recent Sprinkler Saves
- Part of an integrated system
- Benefits

Stovetop Fires Trend

Upcoming Changes

- Q1 Fire Inspection Fee Implemented
- Q2 WSRB Onsite Review Occurs
- Q3 Adoption of new Fire & Building Codes

2020 Fire
Inspection
Fee Program

Direction Needed from Council

Information only.