REAL ID Overview

Background

The 9/11 Commission Report (2004)

“The federal government should set standards for the issuance of birth certificates and sources of identification, such as driver’s licenses.”

Background

- Congress passed the REAL ID Act in 2005
- Starting October 1, 2020, REAL ID compliant documents are required for:
 - Domestic air travel (18 years old and older)
 - Access to restricted federal facilities (e.g. military bases)

REAL ID compliant documents

You may already have what you need for October 1, 2020 If you have one of the following:

- U.S. passport/passport card
- Foreign passport
- Federally recognized, tribal-issued photo ID
- Permanent resident card
- U.S. Department of Defense ID (military ID)
- DHS trusted traveler cards
- Enhanced driver's license or ID card
- U.S. Employment Authorization Card (I-766)

State-issued compliant documents

Washington's state-issued
REAL ID compliant documents are the Enhanced driver license and
ID card (EDL/EID)

Requirements - Proof of citizenship, identity, social security number and residency

State-issued non-compliant documents

Washington state standard driver license or ID card

Requirements - Proof of identity and Washington residency

Marking on standard documents

Standard driver licenses and ID cards have the words “FEDERAL LIMITS APPLY.”

Marking differentiates from REAL ID compliant cards. Not an indication of citizenship or immigration status.

Customer education and outreach

- ID 2020 campaign uses mix of media and methods in multiple languages:
 - TV, radio, social media, digital media
 - Direct community outreach
 - Signage in airports and buses
 - Driver license and ID card renewal notices
- Press events with Spokane and SeaTac Airports and TSA
- Outreach efforts to diverse and underserved communities
 - 32 events last quarter

Customer education and outreach

- Current content for the ID2020 campaign:

Readiness

- Demand for Enhanced Driver License and IDs sharply increasing.
- Education and outreach on options--many Washington resident already have what they need.
- DOL remains in close contact with DHS, airports, and other partners about any changes in REAL ID enforcement timeline or process.
- DOL operational efficiencies and campaign to “come in now” to help mitigate increased wait times leading up to October.
