EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The public hearing is an opportunity for residents and other stakeholders to provide input on the budget update, including all proposed levies, taxes, fees, and rates to aid the City Council and staff prior to development of the City's 2021-2022 Budget and 2021-2027 Capital Investment Program (CIP) Plan. The first public hearing was held on July 27, tonight is the second public hearing, and one additional public hearing is anticipated prior to budget adoption.

RECOMMENDATION

Move to hold the second public hearing on the 2021-2022 Budget and 2021-2027 Capital Investment Program Plan.

BACKGROUND/ANALYSIS

Bellevue's budget is produced every two years and includes a seven-year capital budget. It serves as a major policy document and describes how the City intends to finance its services and infrastructure. This meeting marks another step in a process that launched earlier this year during the Council's biennial budget workshop.

The Council received an initial briefing on the budget process and the impact of COVID-19 on the upcoming biennial budget and the 7-year capital plan on June 22. The agenda memo and meeting materials can be found at this link:

The impacts of COVID-19 are substantial and will last well into the next biennium. The general fund, the City's most common fund, will face an approximately 8 percent reduction in expenditures, and other funds will also be impacted. As the City manager begins to prepare his preliminary budget for delivery to Council in October, the City welcomes public input and feedback. The City Manager's Preliminary Budget will be available in October and will take into consideration all input received. Budget engagement opportunities can be found at this link: <https://bellevuewa.gov/budget>.

The public hearing scheduled for September 21 represents the second of three public hearings planned for the City's 2021-2022 Budget and 2021-2027 CIP Plan. The purpose of this second public hearing is to enable the City Council and City management to hear additional public comment prior to the development and publication of the City's Preliminary 2021-2022 Budget and 2021-2027 CIP Plan. This public hearing is in keeping with Bellevue's long history of overall citizen involvement with the budget process.

A third and final public hearing is anticipated for November, prior to adoption of the budget scheduled for December 2020. At all three public hearings on the City's 2021-2022 Budget and 2021-2027 CIP Plan the public is invited to provide testimony on the operating and capital budgets, including all levies, taxes, fees, and rates.

A public hearing on the City's budget is required by State law and gives the public an opportunity to provide feedback to the Council before a final decision is made.

The second public hearing was advertised in the Seattle Times on September 7 and September 14.
