20.20.128 Affordable housing

Commented [A3]: New section 20.20.128 to replace repealed section.

A. Purpose

The purpose of this section is to encourage development of Affordable Housing by providing density bonus, dimensional standard modification, and modification of other requirements for Affordable Housing projects.

B. Definitions

1. “Mixed-Income Multifamily Development” means a multifamily development project that includes both market rate and affordable housing units.
2. “Religious Organization” means the federally protected practice of a recognized religious assembly, school, or institution that owns or controls real property as defined in RCW 35A.63.300, now or as hereafter amended.

Commented [A4]: Topic #1, Eligibility Criteria, for discussion in Study Session 1.
Definition section for consistency with RCW 35A.21.300.

C. Applicable Procedures.

An application to utilize the provisions of this section shall be processed through the required land use review for the project. If a land use approval is not required for the project, the application shall be processed through the Building Permit review.

Commented [A5]: Topic #5, Applicable Procedures, for discussion in Study Session 2.

D. Eligibility.

The following residential development, including both new development and rehabilitation projects, shall be eligible to receive a density bonus and other modifications as provided in this section:

Commented [A6]: Topic #1, Eligibility Criteria, for discussion in Study Session 1.

Revisions for clarity. Eligibility criteria unchanged from Study Session 1.

Commented [A7]: Clarifies that this section is applicable to rehabilitation projects as well as new development

1. Mixed-Income Multifamily Development. Mixed-Income Multifamily Development in any applicable Land Use District when the development includes Affordable Housing; and
2. Affordable Housing Development. The following ownerships and locations of residential development when all housing units are Affordable Housing:
 - a. Owned by a Religious Organization and located in Single Family Residential Land Use Districts; and
 - b. Owned by a Religious Organization, nonprofit organization, or public agency, except for Bellevue Parks Department, Bellevue Community Development Department, or any public utility entity, and located in all Land Use Districts in which multifamily dwellings are permitted.

E. Density Bonus.

1. Mixed-Income Multifamily Development as provided in subsection D.1 of this section may exempt one bonus market rate unit for each equivalent-sized affordable unit provided, up to 15 percent above the maximum density allowed in the underlying Land Use District.
2. Affordable Housing Development as provided in subsection D.2 of this section may receive a bonus of 50 percent above the maximum density allowed in the underlying Land Use District.

Commented [A8]: Topic #2, New Density Bonus, for discussion in Study Session 1.

Retains previous density bonus and adds second, larger bonus.

F. Dimensional Standard Modification.

Commented [A9]: Topic #4, Dimensional Standard Modification, for discussion in Study Session 2.

1. Mixed-Income Multifamily Development as provided in subsection D.1 of this section may replace the dimensional requirements in LUC Chart 20.20.010 with Chart 20.20.128.F.1. Applicable dimensional requirements in LUC Chart 20.20.010 but not included in Chart 20.20.128.F.1 shall continue to apply, including applicable footnotes.

G. Modification of Other Applicable Requirements.

For eligible residential development as provided in subsection D of this section, the following requirements of the Land Use Code may be modified through the procedures outlined in subsection C of this section, to the extent necessary to accommodate Affordable Housing units on site:

1. Parking Requirements. The percent of compact parking stalls may be increased up to 75 percent of the total required parking. Tandem parking stalls are permitted to the extent feasible to satisfy required parking ratios.

Commented [A10]: Topic #4, Dimensional Standard Modification, for discussion in Study Session 2.

2. Building Height. Except in Transition Areas and the Shoreline Overlay District, the maximum building height in R-10, R-15, R-20, and R-30 Land Use Districts may be increased by up to 12 feet for those portions of the building(s) at least 20 feet from any property line.
3. Open Space. The Open and Recreation Space Requirement within a residential Planned Unit Development may be reduced to 35 percent of gross land area. All other requirements of LUC 20.30D.160 shall continue to apply.

H. Attached Housing within Subdivisions.

Affordable Housing Development as provided in subsection D.2 may be permitted as attached multifamily dwelling units in single family land use districts when meeting the following criteria:

1. The attached multifamily dwelling units shall be reviewed through a subdivision, Chapter 20.45A LUC, or short subdivision, Chapter 20.45B LUC, process, provided nothing in this subsection shall affect the allowance to build attached multifamily dwelling units through a Planned Unit Development, Part 20.30D LUC;
2. Multifamily dwelling units within a subdivision or short subdivision may be considered as Unit Lot Subdivision, with each lot accommodating attached multifamily dwelling units as a Parent Lot and individual Unit Lots created for the attached multifamily dwelling unit, and shall also be reviewed for compliance with LUC 20.45A.065 for subdivisions or LUC 20.45B.057 for short subdivisions;
3. A proposal to create a Unit Lot Subdivision with a Parent Lot and Unit Lots may be reviewed as part of a single proposal for a subdivision or short subdivision;~~and~~
4. An attached multifamily dwelling unit shall not be placed on or across any Parent Lot line within the subdivision or short subdivision;
5. The attached multifamily dwelling units may only be duplexes and triplexes;
6. No more than 50 percent of the units within the subdivision or short subdivision shall be attached multifamily dwelling units; and
7. The attached multifamily dwelling structure shall comply with all applicable dimensional requirements.

Commented [A11]: Topic #5, Attached Housing, for discussion in Study Session 2.

I. Super Bonus for Additional Density and Dimensional Standard Modifications.

Commented [A12]: Topic #6, Super Bonus, for discussion in Study Session 3.

1. Intent. The purpose of this subsection is to accommodate a Super Bonus, which provides additional density and dimensional standard modifications consistent with subsection I.3 of this section, for certain eligible Affordable Housing development in Single Family Residential Land Use Districts. To qualify for a Super Bonus, the proposed residential development must satisfy eligibility requirements in subsections I.2 and I.3 of this section, the procedural requirements in subsection I.4 of this section, and all other applicable requirements in LUC 20.20.128.
2. Eligibility. The following residential development shall be eligible to receive a Super Bonus:
 - a. Affordable Housing Development as provided in subsection D.2 of this section; and
 - b. Located in a Single Family Residential Land Use District; and
 - c. Located within one-half mile radius of a transit stop that receives transit service at least four times per hour for twelve or more hours per day, including future light rail or bus rapid transit station scheduled to begin service within two years; and
 - d. Located on an arterial street; and
 - e. Located within 300 feet of a Multifamily, Commercial, or Office Land Use District.
3. Super Bonus. Eligible residential development as provided in subsection I.2 of this section may request a Super Bonus. A Super Bonus allows additional density and dimensional standard modifications above those provided in subsections E, F, and G of this section. However, Aa Super Bonus shall not exceed the maximum limits allowed in the most intensive Land Use District in which multifamily dwellings are permitted located within 300 feet of the proposed development.
4. Conditional Use Permit (CUP), Part 20.30B LUC, Required. In addition to the requirements in subsection C of this section, a proposed residential development requesting a Super Bonus under LUC 20.20.128.I requires CUP approval pursuant to Part 20.30B LUC and shall comply with the decision criteria in LUC 20.30B.140.

Affordable Housing. Housing used as the primary residence of an affordable housing qualified household. Unless otherwise specified, the price of affordable units is based on that amount a household can afford to pay for housing, when household income is less than 80 percent of the median annual income, adjusted for household size, as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for the Seattle Metropolitan Statistical Area, and when the household pays no more than 30 percent of household income for housing expenses. Households with income less than 80 percent of the median annual income, adjusted for household size, may purchase or rent these affordable units. In addition, affordable housing in the BelRed Subarea shall include for sale units that are affordable up to 100 percent of the median annual income. An agreement in a form approved by the City will be executed by the applicant and recorded with the King County Recorder's Office, or its successor organization, requiring the affordable housing to remain for the life of the project. This agreement shall be a covenant running with the land, binding on assigns, heirs, and successors of the applicant. The Director shall issue administrative rules for establishing the sales or rental price of affordable units and the eligibility of residents.

~~Affordable Housing—Low Income. Housing, used as the primary residence of a low income qualified household. The price of low income units is based on that amount a low income household can afford to pay for housing, when household income is less than 50 percent of the median income, adjusted for household size, as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for the Seattle Metropolitan Statistical Area, and when the household pays no more than 30 percent of household income for housing expenses. Households with income less than 50 percent of the median annual income, adjusted for household size, may purchase or rent these affordable units. The Director shall issue administrative rules for establishing the sales or rental price of low income units.~~
