

City of Bellevue | Proclamation

Whereas: Nov. 11 is Veterans Day, a time to pay tribute to the men and women who have served or currently serve our country; and

Whereas: We acknowledge the contributions and sacrifices made by our military and veterans; and

Whereas: The contributions of the men and women in the Navy, Army, Air Force, Marines and Coast Guard in support of our national security is immeasurable; and

Whereas: The freedom we enjoy in this country, and in our local communities, is owed in great part to the valor of our veterans in conflicts around the world; and

Whereas: Behind every man and woman in uniform, there are families, caregivers and loved ones who compensate and sacrifice for the person serving; and

Whereas: Veterans Day takes place on the anniversary of the end of World War I; and

Now, therefore, I, Lynne Robinson, Mayor of the City of Bellevue, Washington, and on behalf of its City Council, do hereby proclaim Nov. 11 as:

Veterans Day

in Bellevue and urge all residents to reflect on the contributions and sacrifices of men and women who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Lynne Robinson, Mayor
City of Bellevue
