ABSENT: Councilmembers Robertson¹ and Zahn

1. Call to Order

Mayor Chelminiak called the meeting to order at 8:05 p.m.

2. Roll Call, Flag Salute

All Councilmembers except Councilmember Robertson and Councilmember Zahn were present. Councilmember Nieuwenhuis led the flag salute.

(a) World Elder Abuse Awareness Day Proclamation

Councilmember Stokes read the proclamation declaring June 15, 2019, as World Elder Abuse Awareness Day in Bellevue and urging everyone to commit to building safer communities for our aging residents.

Diana Thompson, representing the Bellevue Network on Aging, noted that elder abuse includes financial exploitation, mental abuse, neglect, physical abuse, and sexual abuse, and it is often committed by a known and trusted person. She said that Washington State Adult Protective Services (APS) is the agency that investigates reports of elder and vulnerable adult abuse. APS investigated more than 7,000 reported cases in 2017 in King County. In 2018, APS conducted more than 52,000 investigations of elder abuse statewide. Ms. Thompson invited everyone to join in raising awareness about elder abuse. She encouraged the public to call the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) at 1-866-END-HARM to report suspected abuse or neglect, or to call Adult Protective Services at 206-341-7660.

Mayor Chelminiak paused the meeting for photos.

(b) Commendation for Jim McEachran

Mayor Chelminiak and Deputy Mayor Robinson read the commendation recognizing the contributions of Jim McEachran to the community. They noted his past service on the Human Services Commission and a number of Citizen Advisory Committees (CACs). As one of the founders of the St. Andrew's Housing Group, now Imagine Housing, Mr. McEachran is a longtime advocate for the development of affordable, attainable housing in Bellevue. He was appointed to the City's Affordable Housing Strategy Technical Advisory Group (TAG) in 2016.

Mr. McEachran thanked the Council for the recognition. He said it has been a pleasure to serve and that he has only just begun.

Mayor Chelminiak noted that he periodically receives encouraging emails from Mr. McEachran following City Council meetings. He paused the meeting for photos.

3. Approval of Agenda

→ Deputy Mayor Robinson moved to approve the agenda, amended to reflect the handling of Agenda Item 7. Councilmember Stokes seconded the motion.

→ The motion to approve the agenda, as amended, carried by a vote of 5-0.

4. Communications: Written and Oral

(a) Els Blomme commented regarding the Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA) proposed by the Bellevue Technology Center. Acknowledging that the CPA application was withdrawn, Ms. Blomme expressed concerns regarding the scope and impacts of BTC's development plans. She asked the Council to review the rules related to submitting CPA proposals. She noted the potential misuse of the rule that requires an applicant to wait three years before resubmitting a proposal.

(b) Pamela Johnston noted Bellevue's assets related to safety, diversity, the natural environment, and its overall development. She said she is disappointed that there will not be a strawberry festival this year. She encouraged a festival in the future that includes a parade to celebrate the community's history and multicultural heritage.

(c) Julie Copp commented regarding a property under development behind her house. She recalled an agreement in the 1980s in which both the City of Redmond and the City of Bellevue agreed to not allow access via Bel-Red Road. She expressed concerns regarding extensive development and traffic congestion at the Bellevue-Redmond border.

Mayor Chelminiak acknowledged that Ms. Copp has been in contact with City staff and requested an update in the future from the City Manager.

- (d) Vernon Schrag expressed support for the Vision Zero for Gun Safety Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA). He noted the City's priorities related to safety, including the Vision Zero transportation program, and human services. He said the City of Bellevue worked with the City of Kirkland in 2018 to explore the issue. The City of Kirkland and King County adopted gun safety policies but Bellevue did not. He encouraged the Council to support moving the CPA proposal forward for further review.
 - (e) Carolee Jones expressed support for the gun safety CPA proposal. She encouraged the Council to demonstrate its commitment to public health and safety and to lead on this issue.
 - (f) Beth Silverstein expressed support for the gun safety CPA. She said it does not infringe on Second Amendment rights. The CPA requires an assessment of risk, the consideration of best practices, and an analysis of current laws. She said the CPA seeks to implement gun safety strategies that support a safe community and promote healthy living.
 - (g) Britt Widmer expressed concern regarding the Bellevue Technology Center's proposed Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA). Mayor Chelminiak noted that the CPA application was withdrawn.

11. Other Ordinances, Resolutions and Motions

- (a) Threshold Review of the Planning Commission recommendations and the criteria set forth in Part 20.30I.140 LUC to determine by motion which amendment proposals will be included in the 2019 annual Comprehensive Plan Amendment work program.

City Manager Miyake introduced discussion regarding the proposals to include in the 2019 annual Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA) work program. He noted that three of the four CPA applications have been withdrawn.

Nicholas Matz, Senior Planner, said the four initial CPA applications were Park in Bellevue, 12620 Northup Way, Bellevue Technology Center, and Vision Zero for Gun Safety. All except the latter were withdrawn. Mr. Matz highlighted the eight threshold review decision criteria. An application must meet all of the criteria to be eligible for moving forward to final review.

Mr. Matz said the Vision Zero for Gun Safety CPA proposes policy amendments to the Human Services Element of the Comprehensive Plan to: 1) strive to achieve zero deaths and serious injuries from gun violence in Bellevue by 2035, 2) conduct a comprehensive risk review and an assessment of risks for especially vulnerable residents and workers, 3) work with neighboring jurisdictions to develop and implement regional best practices, and 4) seek the means to implement gun safety strategies.

Jeremy Barksdale, Planning Commission Chair, said the Commission recommended by a vote of 4-2 to not include the Vision Zero for Gun Safety CPA in the 2019 work program. The Commission found that the CPA proposal did not meet the threshold review decision criteria. The Commission determined that: 1) the proposed amendment raises policy or land use issues that are more appropriately addressed elsewhere in the City's policy work, 2) the proposal cannot be reasonably reviewed within the resources and time frame of the annual CPA work program, and 3) there is not sufficient information to determine the proposal's consistency with Countywide Planning Policies or with state or federal laws.

Mr. Matz said the City received 47 public comments regarding the gun safety CPA proposal. Of those, 43 were in favor, two were opposed, and two sought further information. Of the ten individuals who spoke during the Commission's public hearing, nine favored the proposal.

Mr. Matz requested Council action to adopt the Planning Commission's recommendation.

Responding to Councilmember Stokes, Mr. Matz said staff and the Commission determined that the annual CPA process is not the proper method for addressing the proposed policy changes. The Commission suggested that this is a broader issue for the community to address beyond the scope of the annual CPA process.

Responding to Mr. Stokes, Arun Jain, Assistant Director of Community Development, said the City of Kirkland went through an extended period of community engagement before adopting gun safety policies. Bellevue staff and the Planning Commission determined that the issue is too broad and complex to be considered a minor change to the Comprehensive Plan. Mr. Jain suggested it would be more appropriate to address the issue during a major, 10-year update to the Comprehensive Plan or through a different process.

In further response to Mr. Stokes, Mr. Matz said that resources from multiple departments would be needed to fully address the issue of gun safety policies. Mr. Matz confirmed that the Planning Commission did not accept or reject the specific policies. However, the commissioners felt that there are other more appropriate ways to address the issues than through the annual CPA process.

Deputy Mayor Robinson expressed concern that the process allows an applicant to withdraw a CPA proposal in order to reapply the following year. She suggested that the three-year waiting period should be counted from the date of the application, whether or not the proposal is later withdrawn by the applicant or denied by the City. She would like staff to provide more information and a recommendation regarding the rule.

Ms. Robinson said gun safety is a significant concern in schools. She would like more information, including what other cities and governments have done to address the issue.

Councilmember Lee thanked everyone for their comments regarding the gun safety CPA. Responding to Mr. Lee, Mr. Barksdale said the majority of the commissioners felt that the issue does not fall under the City's purview. However, two commissioners were in favor of moving the CPA forward to final review, in part to gather more information. In further response, Mr. Matz said that a person who spoke in strong opposition to the proposed CPA said he believed that the application contained factual errors about gun law and gun control in the United States.

Councilmember Nieuwenhuis questioned whether it would be appropriate to address the issue on an individual neighborhood basis. He thanked the Planning Commission and staff for their work and expressed support for their recommendations. He believes this is a broader community engagement issue in need of extensive study. However, he is unsure whether the suggested policies fall within the City's purview.

Mayor Chelminiak concurred with the determination that the annual CPA process is not the correct approach for addressing the proposed policies related to gun safety. He shared King County's statistics on gun violence, noting that both homicides and suicides are increasing. He said the issue involves both federal law and behavioral health factors. He suggested that the medical examiner's office should be involved in the study and discussions. He acknowledged that this is a partisan political issue at the state and federal levels. Mayor Chelminiak said he would like staff to propose a framework for moving forward.

→ Deputy Mayor Robinson moved to adopt the 2019 annual Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA) work program as recommended by the Planning Commission through its resolution. Councilmember Stokes seconded the motion.

Councilmember Lee concurred with the need for more information before moving forward to address the issue through another avenue.

→ The motion carried by a vote of 5-0.

Responding to Mayor Chelminiak, Mr. Matz said that, last year, staff researched other cities' processes for handling annual CPAs under the Growth Management Act. Mr. Matz said staff will update that information and provide it to the Council.

Mayor Chelminiak said he would like to review the overall process before next year's CPA review process.
